Beatrice Forbes—Robertson Hale.

Beatrice Forbes—Robertson Hale, and will speak at the Town Hall. Tuesday evening, February 1st, at eight o'clock, by invitation of the Norwich Equal Franchise League, is too well known to need an introduction. The niece of Sir Forbes-Robertson, actor and knight, and the youngest member of a family that for three generations has held a distinguished place in English dramatic and literary life, it was but natural that Miss Forbes-Robertson should find herself on the stage early in life. At seventeen she appeared under Sir Henry Irving, and has since acted with Sir Charles Wynham, Sir John Hale, Sir George Alexder, Sir Johnson Forbes-Robertson, and Sir Herbert Tree.

In the autumn of 1907, Miss Ellen Terry brought Miss Forbes-Robertson to America with her, and she returned during the two following years under the direction of Mr. Charles Frohman. She then joined the New Theatre Company in New York, for its first season, at the close of which she married Mr. Swinburne Hale, and thus became an American citizen.

Since 1910, Mrs. Hale has ceased to act, and has devoted herself to lecturing upon poetry, the drama, English and American politics, with special reference to the rise of modern democracy, and on Woman's Suffrage. The summer of 1910, she spent in England, writing a book which was published under the title of "What Women Want."

Mrs. Hale will speak on this subject

Mrs. Hale will speak on this subject n Norwich, and all are cordially in-rited to hear her at the Town Hall text Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Tellegen in "The Explorer" and Three Acts Next Week.

Three Acts Next Week.

Today will be the last chance to see Billy Hall's Musical Comedy Co. of twelve people, mostly girls, present their farce comedy, Matrimonial Troubles. Mr. Hall's show is one of the best musical comedies ever seen at this theatre and that is saying a good deal. There will be the usual three shows today at 2.30, 7 and 8.45 o'clock and the five reel Paramount picture feature Cyril Maude in Peer Gynt, will also be shown.

For the first three days of next week the management have booked three fine vaudeville numbers as follows: Kally and Burke, a mixed team who do a very neat singing and dancing specialty and carry special scenery and electrical effects. Walters and Sherman, who present a piano specialty, and Bob Hart and company who have a comedy talking sketch for which they also carry special scenery. On the Paramount programme for Monday and Tuesday will be Mr. Lou Tellegen, the international star and former leading man for Sarah Bernhardt, who will make his photodramatic debut in the Jesse L. Leaky Feature Play Co's photo-dramatization of William Somerset Maughan's famous book, The Explorer: adapted for the screen especialty for Mr. Telengen by William C. de Mijle, the celebrated playwright.

Also McKenzie, the explorer, is sent into the heart of Central Africs, by the British government to stop the slave trade among the natives. He the British government to stop the slave trade among the natives. He takes with blm George Allerton, who has been dismissed in digrace from the Colonial office but who is the broth-er of the giri Alec is engaged to mar-

George, one day, in a drunken frensy, abuses one of the native giris and kills the warrior who defends her. The chief of the tribe demands the murderer, but Alec refuses to give over the brother of the girl he loves to African torture.

The expedition is then forced to flee for the coast, and George, realizing that his foolishness may cost the lives of the entire party volunteers to remain at the stockade. George manages to hold back the natives for a time before he is killed.

The remainder of the party finally reach the coast, whence they are taken to England.

With the cast supporting Mr. Telleg-en are such well known artists as James Neill, Dorothy Davenport, H. B. Carpenter, Tom Forman and others The production is made in the usual thorough Lasky manner.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Cub," (Reporter) 5 Reel World Feature — Magnificent Comedy-Drama.

This is one of the most delightful stories one could imagine, telling of a serious mountain feud in the mountains of Kentucky. Steve, is a happy-go-lucky fellow, employed at intervals by a city newspaper. The feud breaks out again with renewed vigor, and Steve not being employed at the moment, is despatched by the editor of the staff to cover the field. He arrives mid the thickest of the fray, and in his efforts to be neutral, he gets into a series of difficulties that nearly cost him his life. His predicament is made all the more embarrassing by the admiration of two women, one sought by him and one unsought, but both equally unavoidable.

Insought, but both equally unavoidable.

The plot which follows the progress of the feud is varied enough to be interesting without becoming in the least confused. The Truce dance really marks the beginning of the end for Steve, for it is here that he hopelessly antagonizes the White clan and his husty exit from the hall starts a prolonged struggle to escape being "shot at sunrise." The comic and the serious are well mingled in the concluding reel of the picture that introduces a number of effects both startling and novel. In fact, the climax is a succession of wild howls, for Johnny Hines as the cub reporter, reaches the apex of his comedy work in this scene. One must really see it to know it. Don't miss this hilarious sig feature film. Remember, we show a new and mammoth five real ill-star feature every day, this fact to be duplicated in metropolitan cities. Every day shows a new company, and very day shows a new star and cast, to everyone can see his favorite at regular intervals at the Colonial theares. Watch for next week's attractions.

day, Feb. 1st, when upon the completion of its successful and lengthy run in Chicago, the call boy was discharged and a "call girl" was installed in his piace. Many well known actors began their stage careers in this humble position, but Agatha Richmond is the first woman to seek footlight fame by that route. Miss Richmond is a cousin of Minerva Coverdale, one of the principals in the company. The Winter Garden in New York was the first theatre to employ girl ushers, and so successful did the innovation prove that they are now employed in over 50 Shubert theatres. They have been found to be more nearly 100 per cent. I perfect than men or boys, especially in places requiring patience, neasness and deepatch. Many girls also serve in Shubert theatre box offices. Seats on sale today at 10 a. m. Prices $2, $1.50, $1, 750 and 50c.

Why Tolerate Catarrh?

You have noticed, no doubt, that any cold aggravates nasal catarrh, and the flow of mucous amazes you that such objectionable matter could find lodgment in your head. To ignore this catarrh when the cold subsides is wrong because it continues to slowly injure the delicate linings of the nasal passages and clog them up.

To correct catarrh, cleanse the nostrils frequently with a solution of warm water and salt, insert vaseline on retiring, and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. Scott's acts through the blood to feed the tissues, and contains soothing They Surely Would.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds tolkny praising Mi-ona because it has done for them what it is advertised to do. This medicine comes in the form of a tablet and is very pleasant to take. It speedily and permanently relieves almost all forms of stomach misery and is the only one sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction to refund the money if it does not relieve. You can get Mi-o-na on this basis from Lee & Osgood or any leading druggist in Norwich.
